

Aqua Art Miami – Wynwood

December 3rd – 6th, 2009

White Walls Gallery Booth 50

Greg Gossel with The Shooting Gallery Booth 20

White Walls and The Shooting Gallery are pleased to announce our participation in Aqua Art Miami from December 3-6, 2009. Our galleries are proud to join with Aqua's mission to promote innovative artwork from the West Coast including cities such as Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, and Portland, as well as exceptional programs by many other US and international galleries. Together The Shooting Gallery and White Walls represent a collection of contemporary art with a variety of mediums ranging from oil and acrylic to stencil art and mixed media. Our artists push the boundaries of fine art through exceptional works that fall under the genres of lowbrow, pop surrealism and urban art. This exhibition will continue to intrigue collectors from around the world with twenty artists at the creative forefront of their generation. Please join us at Aqua Art Miami, Booths 50 & 20, from December 3rd-6th 2009 in Miami, Florida.

We are proud to be among respected art dealers, alternative exhibitions and friends this December 2009, marking our second year showing with Aqua Art Miami - Wynwood.

This year we bring new works by Greg Gossel, Ron English, AJ Fosik, Isabel Samaras and Shawn Barber, who are known by their established resumes and representation. These artists raised the bar for painters in the urban art, Pop art, street and outsider art arenas and continue to push the boundaries between them. Booth 50 will also include works by emerging artists such as Aaron Nagel, Kill Pixie, Casey Gray, Ernesto Yerena, Morgan Slade, Jesse Hazelip, Becca Midwood, Mike Shine, Timothy Karpinski, Lucas Soi, Erik Foss, Jessica Hess, Kevin Cyr, Nas Chompas and Mark Warren Jacques who make their debut at Aqua Art Miami with distinctly modern and aesthetic approaches.

In addition to a collection of artwork from the above artists, The Shooting Gallery is excited to be featuring new works by artist Greg Gossel in Booth 20. Gossel is also completing a mural that will welcome Aqua Art Miami's guests upon entering the fair.

The Shooting Gallery and White Walls have recently been featured in Sunset Magazine as "The Pop-Art Pioneer" in an article titled Galleries on the Verge. Artful Living, Art Limited, New York Times, 7X7 Magazine and Juxtapoz Magazine have also recognized the space for our successful and unconventional approach to dealing art. We hope to spread our passion and knowledge of lowbrow, urban art and pop surrealism to art lovers across the globe this December.

We look forward to this year's festivities in Miami, Florida at Aqua Art Miami - Wynwood,
December 3rd-6th, 2009.
